With these hires Miserok Rittweger Advisors in Healthcare pursues its strong growth path in transaction advisory services. Both will support financial investors in identifying promising investment opportunities in the complex and diversified healthcare market. Friedrich von Kleist is responsible for client relationship management in order to meet the increasing demand for healthcare commercial due diligence services. Stefan Biebl's focus is on market and competitive analyses as well as steering M&A processes.

Commenting on his appointment, Friedrich von Kleist said: "I am delighted to join Miserok Rittweger Advisors in Healthcare's team and I am looking forward to supporting our clients with the best-in-class advisory on healthcare investment opportunities. With its unique and broad network of entrepreneurs and close contacts to decision makers and various stakeholders in the healthcare market our team is well positioned to provide first-hand insights and commercial due diligence advice."

Before Friedrich von Kleist joined Miserok Rittweger Advisors in Healthcare he was COO at MedServation, a digital health content agency, where he was responsible for Business and Venture Development. He started his career at Astorius Capital, a Hamburg-based Private Equity Fund-of-Fund, covering European small & mid cap funds as well as sector funds operating e.g. in healthcare. An education in International Management and Agricultural Economics as well as an apprenticeship as a banker complete his profile.

Stefan Biebl commented on his appointment: "I am very much looking forward to this new task and the challenge it will bring. I am convinced that we will continue the success story of Miserok Rittweger Advisors in Healthcare. The fragmented healthcare market still offers multiple investment opportunities. With our deep market insights, we can match the best companies with the right investors."

Stefan Biebl holds a master's degree in business administration from the University of Munich. He gained first professional experiences in the areas of financial models, controlling and business development in various companies ranging from a medium-sized family business to a large global industrial corporation.

Marcus Geier, Managing Director of Miserok Rittweger Advisors in Healthcare commented: "We are glad that Friedrich and Stefan are joining us to support our growth plan and to meet the increasing demand of Private Equity investors for healthcare commercial due diligence and target search services. They combine comprehensive knowledge of the healthcare market and financial expertise, which is in addition to Friedrich's recent experiences in digital healthcare very valuable in order to evaluate the challenges and growth potentials of Private Equity healthcare investments."
